

Welcome to

Art at Home

with Dr. Simpson

Art Activity

Hello Family! I know it's hard being home every day. I'll be sending you activities. Parents, you're invited to work with your child. Here's is an activity I hope you'll like.

Create Your Own Emojis

Make an Emoji Book: Information

Share your emotions with emoji's when pictures say it best. Here are some emotions you can create either in a small book, or as small signs using straws and tape. Choose 6 emotions. Here are some: Happy, sad, tired, excited, angry, worried, surprised, board, amazement, disgust, cool, pity. Can you think of others that you would like to make? If so, just add them to your book.

Materials

- Crayons
- Scissors
- 2 sheets of any paper
- Tape (optional)
- Straws (optional)

Resources:

- A parent's mobile device
- Emoji Clip Art (check online)
- Making Emojis video: 2:20
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cXxV0r8rL00>

Steps to make your Emoji book or sticks

1). Fold 2 sheets of paper in half. 2). Fold all pages again to create a small book.

3). List at least 6 emotions. 4). Begin drawing your emoji's in your book. You can also create Emoji sticks, make up a game, and play with someone. Enjoy!!!

Student expectations while creating from home:

- Find the best materials you can
- Use your imagination
- Be as creative as you can
- Ask an adult to work with you

Grades: K & 1st

Parents work with your child. Read information and help cut paper.

Grades: 2nd, 3rd, 4th

Parents assist where needed. Allow students to lead the way.

... and when you're done ...
Send a comment