Artmaking

Some limit art to drawing or painting, but art is so much more than that. Artmaking includes using one's imagination with some degree of passion and inspiration to bring about clarity, transformation, or change. Find your expressive or creative voice in what you do! Find what empowers your spirit, what allows you to respond or contribute to life in a meaningful or expressive way. Write, and send us your thoughts on artmaking. We'd enjoy hearing about it.
